Verse

D                               C
It's been so long since I've been gone
D                               C        D    C    D   C
Another day might be too long for me
D                               C
Traveling around I've had my fill
D                               C        D    C    D   C
Of broken dreams and dirty deals
D                               C
A concrete jungle surrounding me
D                               C        D    C    D   C
Many nights I've slept out in the streets
D                               C
I paid my dues and I changed my style
D                               C    D
Seen hard times. All over now
Chorus
Am                                   C                                                        G        D
I want to come home. It's been so long since I've been away
Am                      C
And please, don't blame me 'cause I've tried
G                       D                      Am           C         D   Bb
I'll be coming home soon to your love to stay.....
C – D – C – D – C – D - C

Verse
D                               C
I miss old friends that I once had
D                                   C                                    D          C      D  C
Times ain't changed and I'll be glad when I go home
D                               C
I don't know why the thought came to me
D                                C                  D               C     D
But why I'm here I really can't see. And now...

Chorus
Am                                   C                                                        G        D
I want to come home. It's been so long since I've been away
Am                      C
And please, don't blame me 'cause I've tried
