On The Hunt - Lynyrd Skynyrd

Strumming Pattern – Chorus: D, DU, D, DU

Riff Theme:

B       A       E       B       A

---
4 4 4 5 5 5 4 4 3 3 3
2 2 5 5 5 5 5 4 4 4 0

\[ z1. \]

The riff above is the entire theme except for the chorus. I’ll be noting the theme below as the chord marked in blue for ease of reference.

P.S. – While some of these chords are technically 5ths I don’t want to confuse you too much so we’ll just call them by the original names. (B = B5 yadda yadda yadda)

B A E B A
I said baby mama..........I don't know your name
B A E B A
But I said baby,............sugar I can play your game
B A E B A
Every night when we leave the hall........ I see you hanging around
B A E B A
You wanna ride in my big black car baby.....wanna go uptown?

[Chorus]
E B
I know who you are baby
D A
I know what they call you girl
E B
Never put you down baby
D A E G B
I'm just like you baby, I'm on the hunt

B A E B A
I know lady.............people gonna talk about you and me
B A E B A
Let me say one thing mama............. sugar I do as I please
B A E B A
And if you wanna love me baby............I'm your man
B A E B A
And all those high-falutin' society people............. I don't care if they don't understand
[Chorus]
E                         B
I know who you are baby
D                            A
I know what they call you girl
E                         B
Never put you down baby
D                            A              E     G    B
I'm just like you baby, I'm on the hunt

B                         A         E          B                       A
My daddy told me................. a long time ago
B                         A         E          B                       A
said there's two things son.......two things you should know
B                         A         E          B                       A
And in these two things.................you must take pride
B                         A         E          B                       A
That's a horse and woman, yeah ........well both of them you ride

[Chorus]
E                         B
I know who you are baby
D                            A
I know what they call you girl
E                         B
Never put you down baby
D                            A              E     G    B
I'm just like you baby, I'm on the hunt
